

Dear Authors,

The prestigious medal of 'Ambassador De Literature' is Awarded to authors who contribute selflessly to world literature and it's the dream of every writer globally to be a recipient of this owing to the stringent norms in selection process. We have this great author who has been unique by supporting other authors through her magazine called Connections E Magazine, publisher quarterly. She has not only been focussed to self but also to her counterparts across the globe. An author book becomes a best seller when he or she looks beyond a region and to a world that just knows literature. She has proven it many occasions and she has been as best seller author as well.

It's a pride moment for world literature to see the divine followers of truthful literature unifying for a cause to develop its strength and quality. Today we are as strong as 106 nations united. Motivational Strips and it's family associates comprise of more than 50000 members. And the monthly visitors of Motivational Strips alone is 4 million a month. So you all can imagine how many times more it would be with all our affiliated and associates summed. Wow! Is not a sufficient word. I would say in simple words, you all are making it happen. When I say you all, it means us together collectively and qualitatively. This is literature and this only is what literature demands, and the demand is love and mutual respect. Nothing else succeeds in literature unless mutual encouragement and unification is there among writers. Many great minds have been supporting co writers to come up and develop world literature. But do they get noticed? Not fully, but we do keep searching the deserving ones and we do honour them time to time. Thus we came upon this American Author who has been consistently supporting and encouraging Independent authors who exhibits their acumen in literary works. She has been always with them to see their progress and along with that she has also been growing. An ideal practice we all should adapt for progress. Ambassador De Literature honour is given for such distinguished individuals who has been humble and kind to the world of literature.

Thus without much ado , Motivational Strips takes happiness in conferring the medal of
